

TOPIC: CORRECT COMMA USAGE 3

Rewrite each sentence placing commas wherever required:

ex: He wanted to go but he couldn't. --> He wanted to go, but he couldn't.

1. While he didn't speak fluent French he spoke enough to understand what Rachel his next-door neighbor was saying.

---

---

2. I heard him play that sadly beautiful song on my way home from work.

---

3. Gina his girlfriend was a lot less attractive than Mary his wife.

---

4. My grandfather was born in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania in 1940.

---

5. I'm telling you George this is not the way to the restaurant.

---

6. "I have bought all of their albums" she said "even the bad ones."

---

7. June 2015 was an important month for me.

---

8. My brother was born on July 25 1995.

---

9. The idea that he would do this on purpose seemed ridiculous.

---

10. In theory he is the best player on the team.

---

TOPIC: CORRECT COMMA USAGE 3

ANSWERS:

1. While he didn't speak fluent French, he spoke enough to understand what Rachel, his next-door neighbor, was saying.
2. I heard him play that sadly beautiful song on my way home from work.
3. Gina, his girlfriend, was a lot less attractive than Mary, his wife.
4. My grandfather was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in 1940.
5. I'm telling you, George, this is not the way to the restaurant.
6. "I have bought all of their albums," she said, "even the bad ones."
7. June 2015 was an important month for me.
8. My brother was born on July 25, 1995.
9. The idea that he would do this on purpose seemed ridiculous.
10. In theory, he is the best player on the team.